Lodging

Can I stay in a cabin with friends?

As we get closer to the 110th Anniversary Weekend, we will be sending out a form to ask for cabinmate requests. Please fill out that form if you have a request. For individuals coming to camp with no cabinmate request, we will have one cabin designated for all female and one for all male guests. Requests from guests with mobility concerns will be given priority.

How will the cabins be organized for those staying on camp?

Families and friends will be assigned to chalets and cabins as we get requests. Large groups will be assigned a cabin or an entire sleeping room. Please note that groups smaller than 6 people may share a sleeping room or a cabin.

Do guests staying on camp need to bring their own bedding or can they use camp bedding?

Guests are welcome to bring their own bedding. If guests would like to have camp bedding (2 sheets, 1 pillow and pillowcase, and 2 blankets) they will need to specify that in a form that camp will email out closer to the 110th Anniversary Weekend.

Can guests decide to stay on or off camp after they have registered?

Yes, just let us know before August 1, so that we can make the necessary changes.

Will camp provide transportation if I am staying at Grand View Lodge?

For guests who are staying at Grand View Lodge, a shuttle will go between camp and Grand View Lodge. The shuttle will run before/after dinners on Friday and Saturday, and before breakfast on Saturday and Sunday. A schedule of shuttle times will be available in your weekend program.

If I am not staying at camp, where would you suggest I stay?

There are multiple options around Camp Lincoln and Camp Lake Hubert. We highly suggest Grand View Lodge and have rooms blocked off for the weekend. Some other options include Madden's, Good Ol' Days Family Resort, Magnuson Hotel and Suites, Holiday Inn Express & Suites Brainerd-Baxter, Country Inn & Suites by Radisson Baxter, and the Nisswa Motel. Please note, shuttles will only run between Grand View Lodge and camp.
